STOCKHOLM, SE-171 77, SWEDEN*

CERTIFYING DOCUMENTS

All copies of original documents must be certified as true copies of the original for the application to be valid. This means that the copies must be stamped and signed by the issuing institution, or a notary public. In order to certify document copies, you must present both the original and copy of the document to the person carrying out the certification. Each copy and page must be certified separately and clearly indicate:

- The signature of the certifying officer
- The stamp of the issuing institution or notary public
- The name and address or provider/registration number (where applicable) of the certifying officer. This must be printed legibly (able to read) below the signature or in the stamp. It must be possible for Karolinska Institutet to contact the certifying officer if necessary. A stamp stating only "True copy certified" will not be accepted.

Applications written in any other language than English or Swedish will be rejected. If translation is needed the translation of the documents must be performed by an authorised translator. Translations by interpreters are not accepted.
